

| | |
|---|---|
| Project title: | Media analysis of the illicit tobacco trade in Australia |
| Hours of engagement & delivery mode | 20-36 hours per week (4 weeks) In person Herston Campus, Ground Level, Edith Cavell Building |
| Description: | The project is a media analysis of news stories about illicit tobacco trade in Australia. This project is part of a larger case study of the illicit tobacco market in Australia, which has grown substantially over the past 5-7 years. |
| Expected learning outcomes and deliverables: | The student will gain an overview of media analysis methodology and experience in using media databases for research. Opportunity to work on a very topical issue. Deliverables will be a dataset that is ready for analysis. |
| Suitable for: | This project is suitable for students from a wide range of disciplinary backgrounds (both health and non-health related). It would be ideal for a student with an interest in public policy, public health, journalism, law and criminology. The student is expected to attend in person at our research centre for this project. Students unable to commit to the minimum hours and to attending the research centre during weekdays and standard working hours are respectfully asked not to apply. |
| Primary Supervisor: | Professor Coral Gartner c.gartner@uq.edu.au Ph: (07) 3346 5478 |
| Further info: | The supervisor MUST be contacted by students prior to submission of an application Professor Coral Gartner NHMRC Centre of Research Excellence on the Tobacco Endgame |