

Acknowledgement of unpaid placement – visa applicant

Form
1283

Who should use this form?

This form is for people intending to participate in an unpaid placement on either the Special Program (subclass 416) visa or the Training and Research (subclass 402) visa.

Australia has an extensive industrial relations regime that protects the rights of both Australians and non-Australians working in Australia. As your occupational training or special program in Australia involves activities that are unpaid you are required to complete this form to indicate an understanding of the basis of the appointment and an understanding of the relevant industrial relations laws.

Note: ‘Unpaid’ in this context is referring to circumstances where you will receive no remuneration for doing the work or activity other than:

- reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by you in doing the work or activity; or
- prize money or an allowance received.

I acknowledge that:

- I will be undertaking a workplace-based training or special program placement with the organisation named below for the specified period nominated while in Australia;

- I understand that the workplace-based training or special program placement is unpaid and that I will not receive any form of remuneration for the period of my placement;
- I am not an employee of the organisation while undertaking the occupational training or special program;
- I understand that workplace relations laws make it unlawful to employ an employee and not pay them and that penalties may be imposed against any employer who breaches these laws;
- in considering this visa application, the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) has not endorsed the proposed placement as meeting the requirements of Australia’s workplace relations laws and that the legal ramifications of my working arrangement are my responsibility; and
